GENERAL.

NOTIFICATIONS.

The 21st July 1882.

No. 75.—The following Bye-law passed by the Municipal Commissioners of the Bangalore Town is approved and sanctioned by Government, to come into effect from the 1st September 1882.

Every owner or occupier of a house which has a privy pit shut out from the public street by a single wall shall, after 15 days' notice from the President, fill up such pit to a depth not exceeding 2 feet from the upper surface and shall open a wicket gate in the said wall for the purpose of the daily removal of the night soil as required by Section 108 of the Bangalore Municipal Regulations of 1871.

Any infringement of this Bye-law shall subject the offender to a penalty not exceeding 5 Rupees.

Every owner or occupier of a house which has a privy pit surrounded by buildings, and where there is no facility to remove the night soil daily, shall, after 15 days' notice from the President, reconstruct the same with stone and clay, not exceeding 3 feet square and 4 feet deep, and the contents thereof shall be removed not less than once in a month, and in the interim the same be properly deodorized.

Any infringement of this Bye-law shall subject the offender to a penalty not exceeding 5 rupees.

The 2nd August 1882.

Terms of Sale.—Those notified in the Mysore Gazette, Notification No. 20 of 12th June 1873, and will be read out at the time of sale.

The 4th August 1882.

No. 85.—It is hereby notified for public information that the undermentioned jodi villages, which have been duly attached in satisfaction of the arrears of revenue due to Government (as shown in the subjoined statement) by the said jodidars, will be sold by public auction at the places and on the dates mentioned in the annexed statement. The sale will commence at 11 A. M. on the dates specified, and the villages will be knocked down to the highest bidder without reserve.

2. Provided that when a village is divided into separate recognized vrittis, the Deputy Commissioner may at his option, instead of selling the village as a whole, sell each vritti separately.

3. The purchaser will be required to deposit 25 per cent of the purchase money at the time of sale, and where the remainder of the purchase money may not be paid within 15 days from the day of sale, the money so deposited shall be liable to forfeiture.

4. When such deposit shall not be made, nor the remaining purchase money paid up, the lands shall be re-sold at the expense and risk of the first purchaser.

5. Persons bidding at the sale may be required to state whether they bid on their own account or as agents, and in the latter case to deposit a written authority signed by their principals, otherwise their bids may be rejected.

6. The sale shall be stayed if the defaulter, or any other person acting on his behalf or claiming an interest in the land, tenders the full amount of the arrears of revenue with the interest and other charges ; provided such tender be made before sunset on the day previous to that appointed for the sale.

7. The sale of the property will not become absolute until the sale has been confirmed by the Dewan.

8. Purchasers having completed the payment of the purchase money will, as soon as the sale has been confirmed by the Dewan, be placed in immediate possession and the village will be registered in the name of the purchaser, and a certificate of sale signed and sealed by the Deputy Commissioner will be granted to him. It is to be distinctly understood that the Government are not responsible for errors of description and in estimated extent.

9. Provided parties deeming themselves aggrieved by the sale shall be at liberty to appeal to the Dewan within 30 days from the day of sale, and the purchase shall be conditional on the final order in such appeal.
